GREENSBORO, N.C. – A deserving Greensboro Regional REALTOR® just took home a GRRRA Hall of Fame award.

Robert M. Lewis was named a recipient of the GRRRA Hall of Fame awards at GRRRA's January First Tuesday Installation Luncheon on Tuesday, Jan. 10.

Mr. Lewis currently works in commercial real estate with NAI Piedmont Triad Commercial. He is also on the 2022-2023 GRRRA Board of Directors as the RCA Director.

This award honors outstanding REALTORS or lenders within our industry and Association who have contributed consistent, outstanding service to our profession in the areas of development, environment or government, and /or leadership which have an enduring effect upon the real estate profession.

Mr. Lewis has been an active volunteer for NAR, NCR, GRRRA and the Greensboro/Burlington real estate industry for the last 25 years.

His extensive resume includes membership with GRRRA, the RCA and CIE, being part of several committees and becoming a REALTOR® of Distinction. He has been a very active volunteer in many organizations over that time including the Chamber of Commerce, the Boy Scouts and his church.
